Certifying your documents

All documents must be provided in a certified copy format – in other words, a copy of the original document that has been certified by an eligible certifier.

A 'certified extract' means an extract that has been certified as a true copy of some of the information contained in a complete original document by one of the persons described below.

Please note that we require the copy which was actually signed by the certifier (i.e. the original penned signature of the certifier).

People who can certify documents or extracts are:

- A lawyer, being a person who is enrolled on the roll of the Supreme Court of a State or Territory, or the High Court of Australia, as a legal practitioner (however described).
- A magistrate, a chief executive officer of a Commonwealth court or a judge, registrar or deputy registrar of a court.
- A Justice of the Peace or a notary public (for the purposes of the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993).
- An agent of the Australian Postal Corporation (APC) who is in charge of, or a permanent employee of the APC with 2 or more years of continuous service who is employed in or an office supplying postal services to the public.
- A police officer or an Australian consular officer or an Australian diplomatic officer (under the Consular Fees Act 1955).
- An officer with 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more financial institutions (under the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993).
- A finance company officer with 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more financial companies (under the Statutory Declaration Regulations 1993).
- An officer with, or authorised representative of, a holder of an Australian financial services licence, having 2 or more continuous years of service with one or more licensees.
- A member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Australia, CPA Australia or the National Institute of Accountants with 2 or more years of continuous membership.
